

List of Sites for Baptisms for LDS on "Baptizing Day"
Names:	FGS	Pict	Hist
Once each Summer in the: Provo River Spring Creek Hatch Flour Millpond In the front room of the old Wasatch LDS Tithing Office New Wasatch Stake Seminary Heber City Stake Center Heber City East Stake Center Midway Stake Center And many other unknown spots in Wasatch Co nty Ref; HBUM pp 116-117

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

gathered in their wagons or barns, or pate in the "baptizing day."

Authorities of the stake realized that the ordinance could regularly be performed constructed in the tithing office where it

A devastating fire on the grounds of tithing office broke out during a peaceful fore the bucket brigade could bring sufficient barns and sheds were destroyed. The loss self, however. This fire virtually brought tithing "in kind." Farmers were urged to tithes in cash. More adequate baptis-the new high school seminary building and fulness of the tithing office began to Labon Hylton who converted it into two property to Lowe Ashton who constructed the site.

BISHOP THOMAS
first bishop of Heber

When Bishop Thomas Rasband of Duke was called as the new bishop. He and Henry Ohlwiler. Bishop Duke served a Patriarch of the Wasatch Stake. How-Duke, for his son, Robert Duke became the and George Wootton as counselors.

In the West Ward, Bishop Forman succeeded by Bishop Henry Clegg. This the third bishop of the ward in 1894 and with his family to Raymond, Alberta, plans were underway by the stake presi-Wards and create three new wards so

Those who served in leadership of Wards before the reorganization were a